
Table of Contents

Introduction to Mentor Sentences p. 3-5

Homework p. 6

Book List p. 7

Ish p. 8-13
compound predicate with vivid verbs

After The Fall p. 14-20
adverbs

What Do You Do With a Problem? p. 21-26
interrogative (types of sentences)

The Book of Mistakes p. 27-34 independent vs. dependent clauses

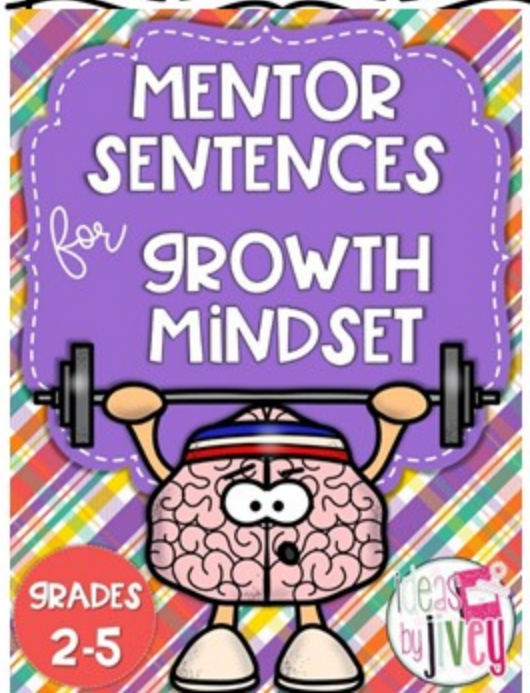
The Bad Seed p. 35-41
awesome adjectives (replacing boring adjectives)



I really missed the birds and being high above the city.

~After The Fall

INTERACTIVE ACTIVITIES

QUIZZES WITH ANSWER KEYS

Name: Answer Key Date: _____

Editing Assessment

I reelly mist the birds and being hi above the city

1. Circle [illegible] correctly:

I really [illegible] the city.

2. What are the adverbs in this week's mentor sentence?

really high

Adverbs can modify [illegible] adverbs. Circle the adverbs in these [illegible] more than once):

3. Then one day, I [illegible]

4. Fortunately, all the king's men put me together again.

5. I eventua[illegible] round.

6. It was not [illegible] rds.

7. Unfortuna[illegible]

Add adverbs to these sentences to make them more descriptive:

answers will vary

8. I finally [illegible] to climb that wall.

9. I was absolu[illegible]

10. Overcoming you[illegible] difficult.

I really missed the birds and being high above the city.
~After The Fall

TEACHER & STUDENT SENTENCES

FIVE DETAILED LESSONS

Monday - possibilities of things to notice
*adverbs gerund (verb acting as a noun/object) – being simple sentence
first person point of view past tense
prepositional phrase

Tuesday - label the sentence
I – pronoun really, high – adverbs missed – verb
the – article birds, city – noun and – coordinating conjunction being – gerund
above – [illegible]

I really [illegible]

complete subject / simple subject — complete predicate / simple predicate

Wednesday [illegible]

I really mis[illegible] high above the city.
(added gerund and adjective)

Thursday - possibility of imitation sentence

I really missed my dogs and sleeping peacefully in my own bed.