

EVERYTHING BUT THE BOOKS

Jivey's products are always perfection and provide you with everything you need to follow her lessons.

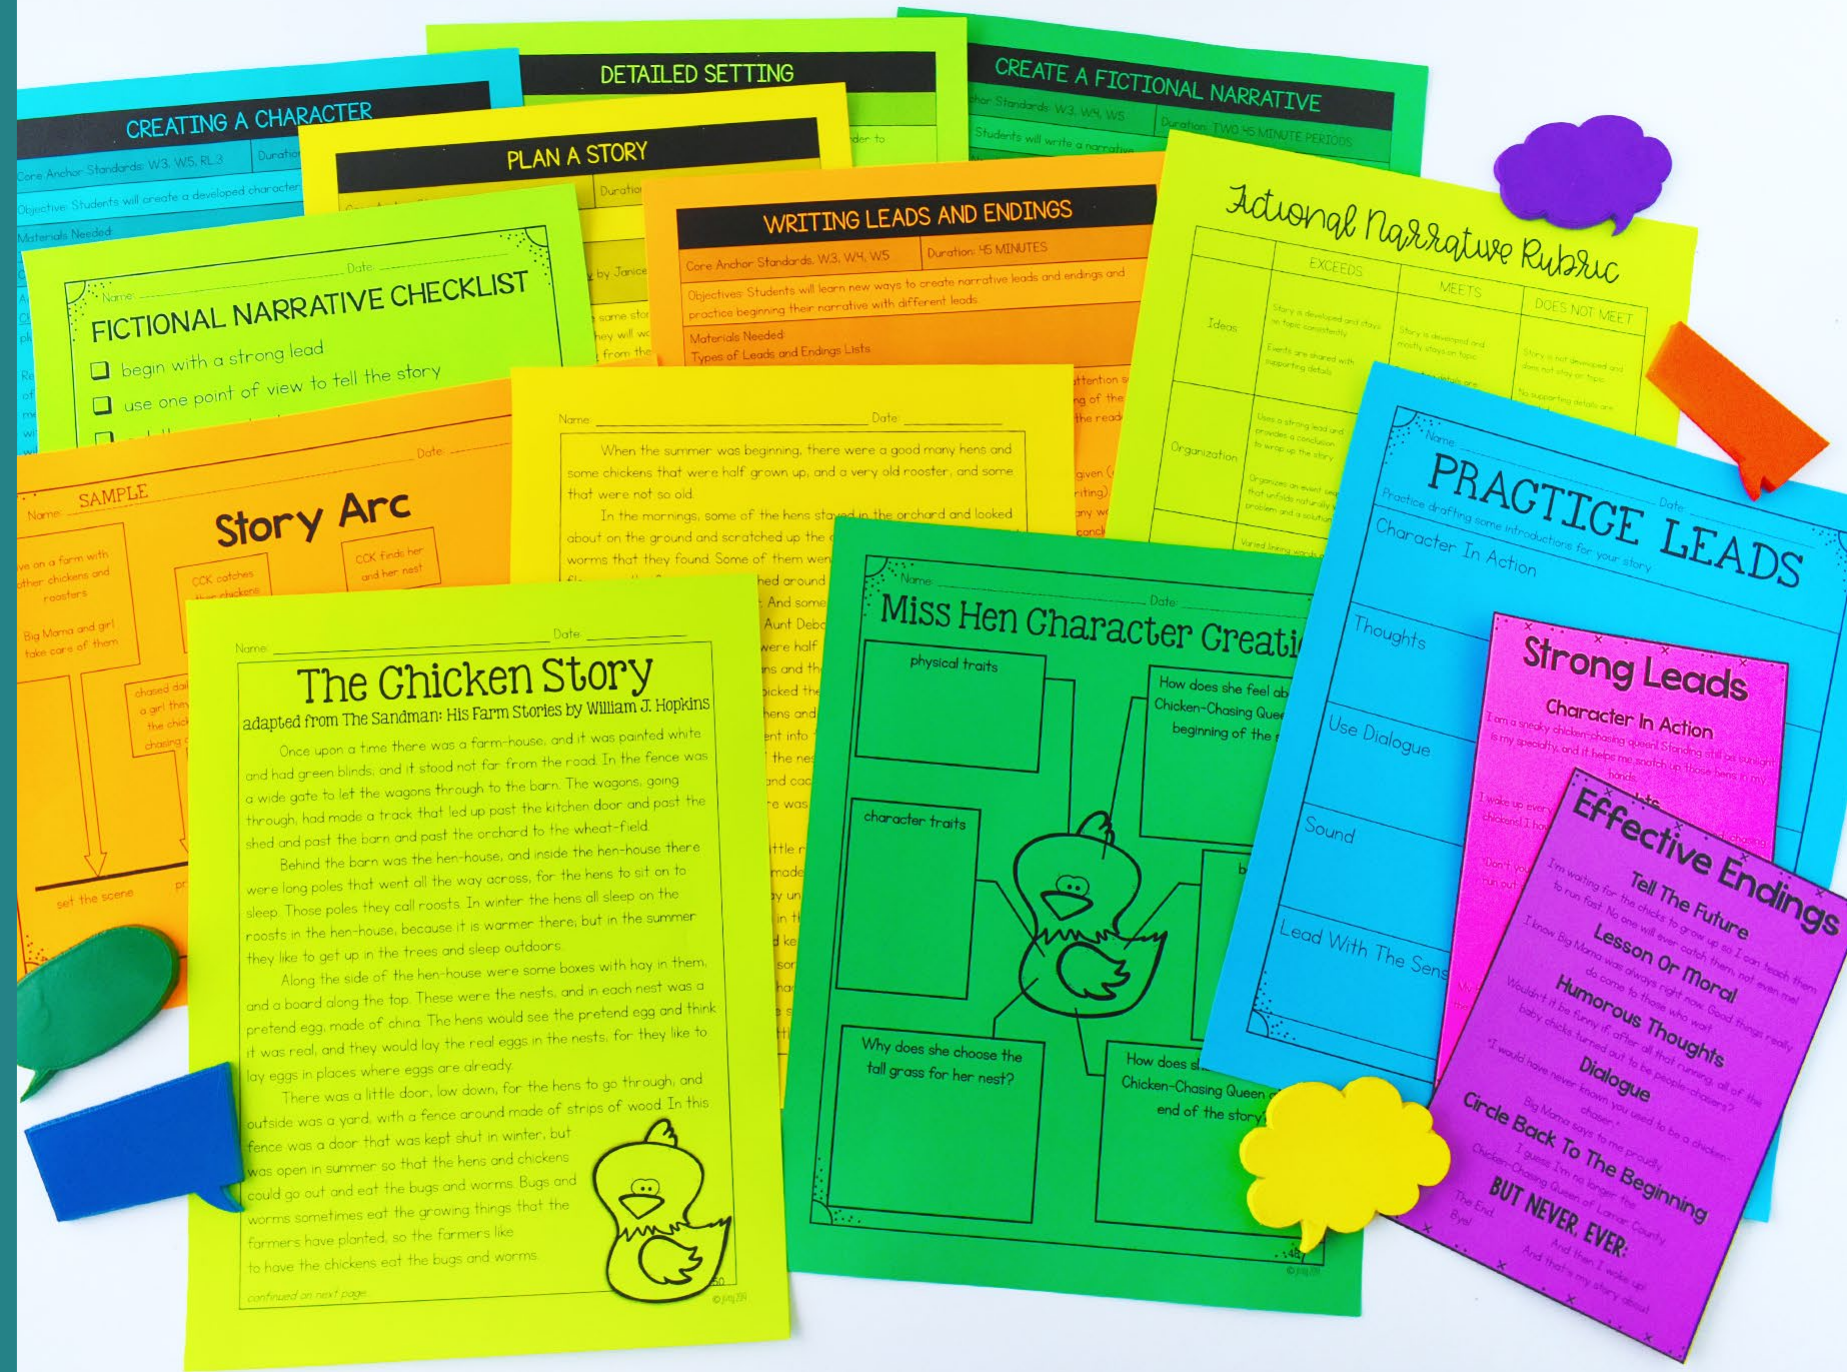

Heather B., 5th Grade Teacher

WHAT'S INCLUDED?

30 Explicit Lesson Plans
Aligned To Core Reading,
Writing, And Language Anchor
Standards

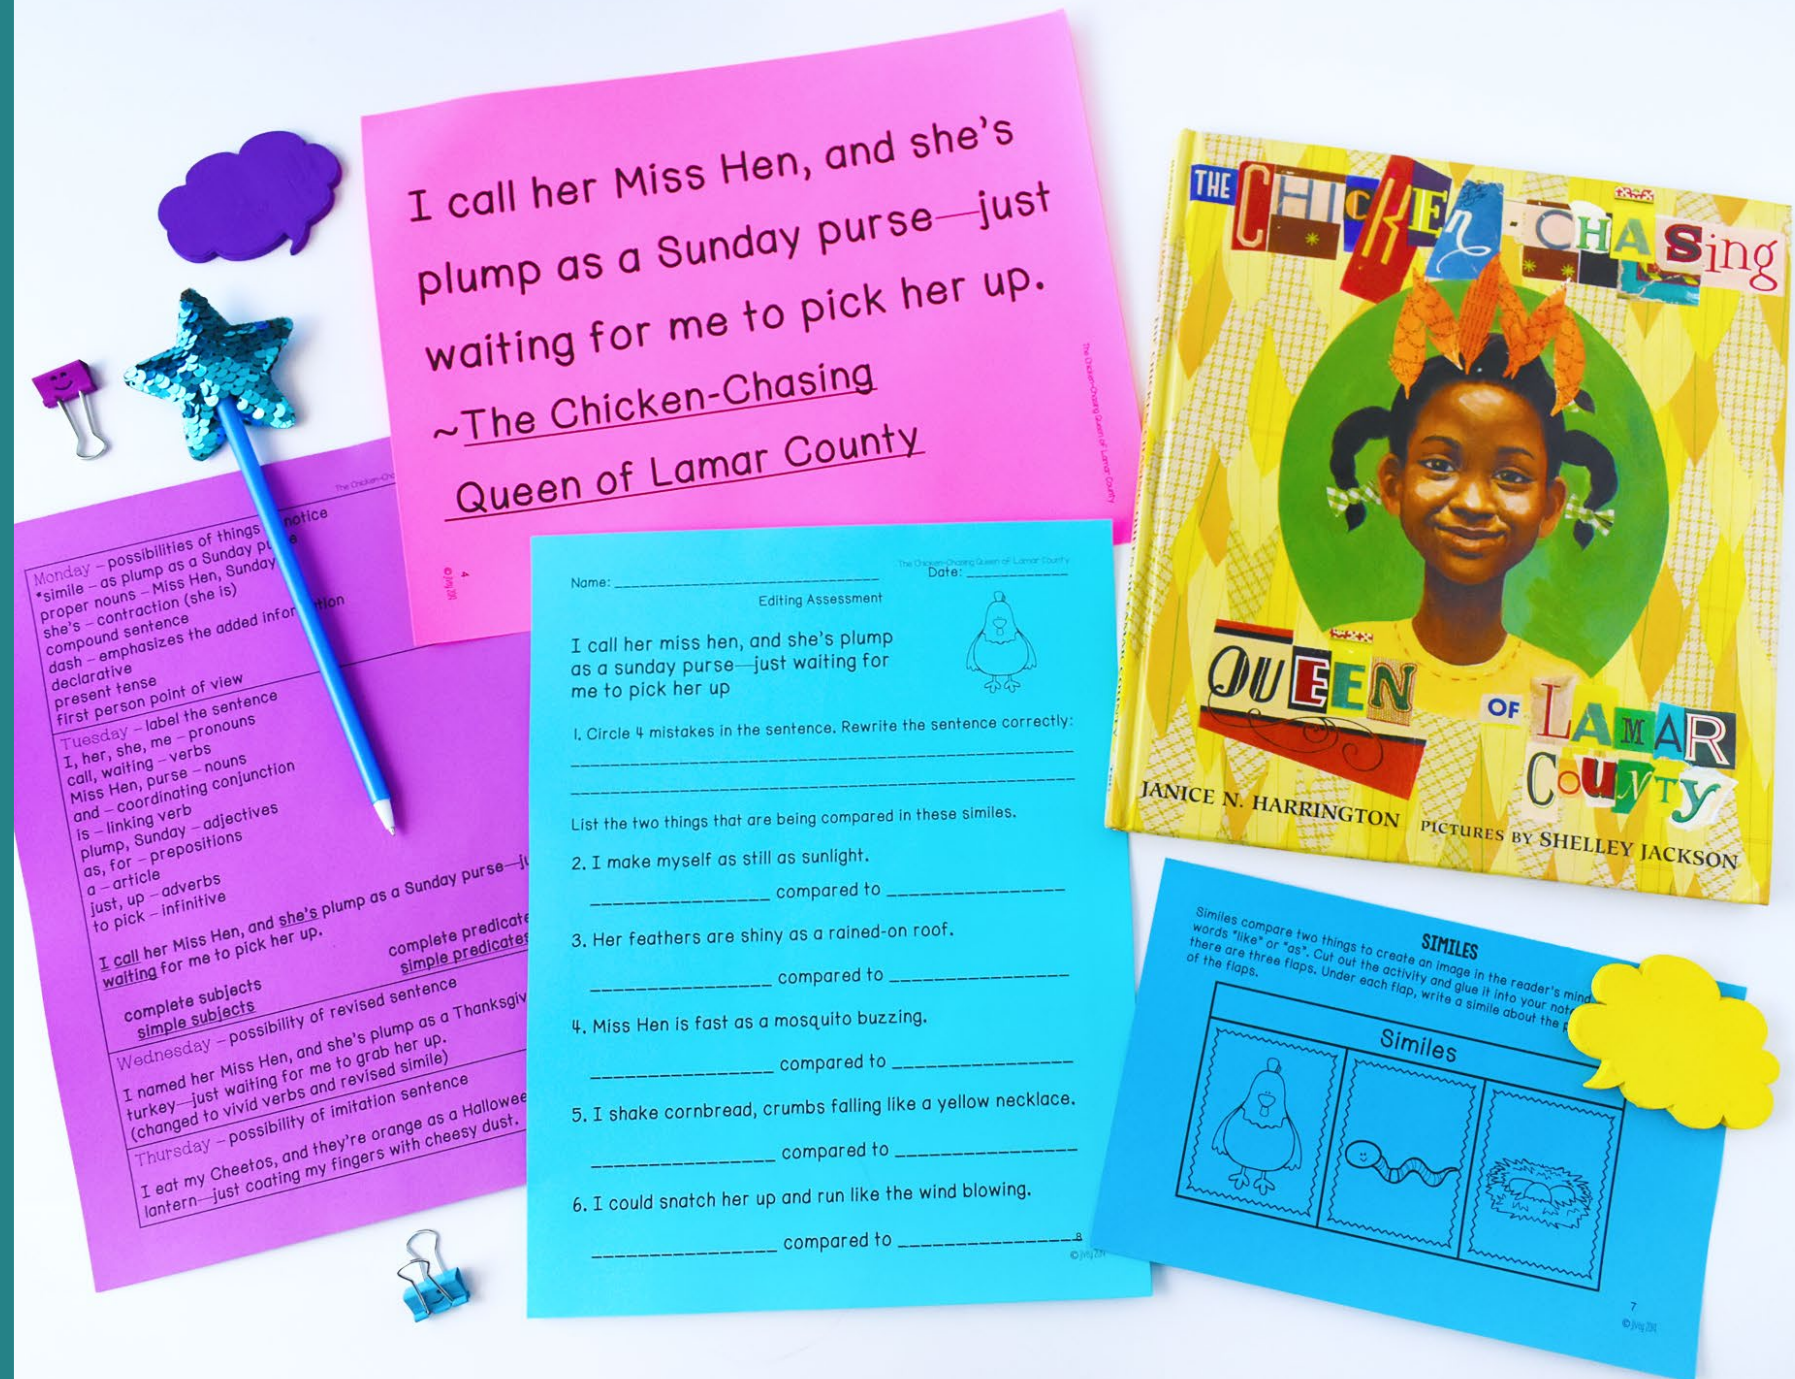

PLUS

- Suggested Sequence
- Printable Activities
- Posters
- Additional Texts (poem, short story, and folktales)
- Samples For Modeling
- Checklists
- Rubrics

MENTOR SENTENCE LESSONS:

- The Remember Balloons by Jessie Oliveros - dialogue
- The Chicken-Chasing Queen of Lamar County by Janice N. Harrington - similes
- Martina the Beautiful Cockroach by Carmen Agra Deedy - modifiers

MENTOR TEXT LESSONS:

- Figurative Language
- Inference
- Contributing Visuals
- Character Traits
- Response To Literature
- Character Response To Challenges

METAPHORS: MENTOR TEXT
Core Anchor Standards: RL.1, RL.2, RL.3, RL.4 | Duration: 15 MINUTES
Objective: Students will demonstrate understanding of the metaphors of the balloons.
Materials Needed: The Remember Balloons

Brainstorm Memories
Core Anchor Standards: W.3, W.8 | Duration: 20 MINUTES
Objective: Students will brainstorm memories they can write about in the future.

Snippet Timeline
Core Anchor Standards: W.3, W.8 | Duration: 20-30 MINUTES
Objective: Students will write a story similar to the snippet mentor text.
Materials Needed: The Remember Balloons

DESCRIBING THE MEMORY
Core Anchor Standards: W.3, W.8 | Duration: 15 MINUTES
Objective: Students will label their memory using the Remember Balloon Activity.

ZERO IN ON A MEMORY
Core Anchor Standards: W.3, W.8 | Duration: 30 MINUTES
Objective: Students will draw a memory using specific details.

MEMORY QUICKWRITE
Core Anchor Standards: W.3, W.8 | Duration: 15 MINUTES
Objective: Students will write about their remember balloon memory.
Materials Needed: My Remember Balloon Activity, Quickwrite Sample, Writing Paper

INFERRING: MENTOR TEXT
Core Anchor Standards: RL.1, RL.3 | Duration: 25 MINUTES
Objective: Students will draw inferences from the text.

THE REMEMBER BALLOONS
Make inferences about the evidence given from the book.

Evidence	What I Know	=	My Inference
Grandpa found his dog, Jack, chasing butterflies next to the schoolhouse. He said, "Only Jack could get me to school on a Saturday!"
I run after the balloons trying to reach them, but they always slip away.
He finally loses the silver one. "Why did you let it go?" I yell. "That was our balloon!"
I have new balloons (with Grandpa's memories). I climb into Grandpa's lap and begin telling him about my new balloons.

My Remember Balloon
Name: _____ Date: _____
Using the Remember Balloon, draw a memory you can write about in the future.

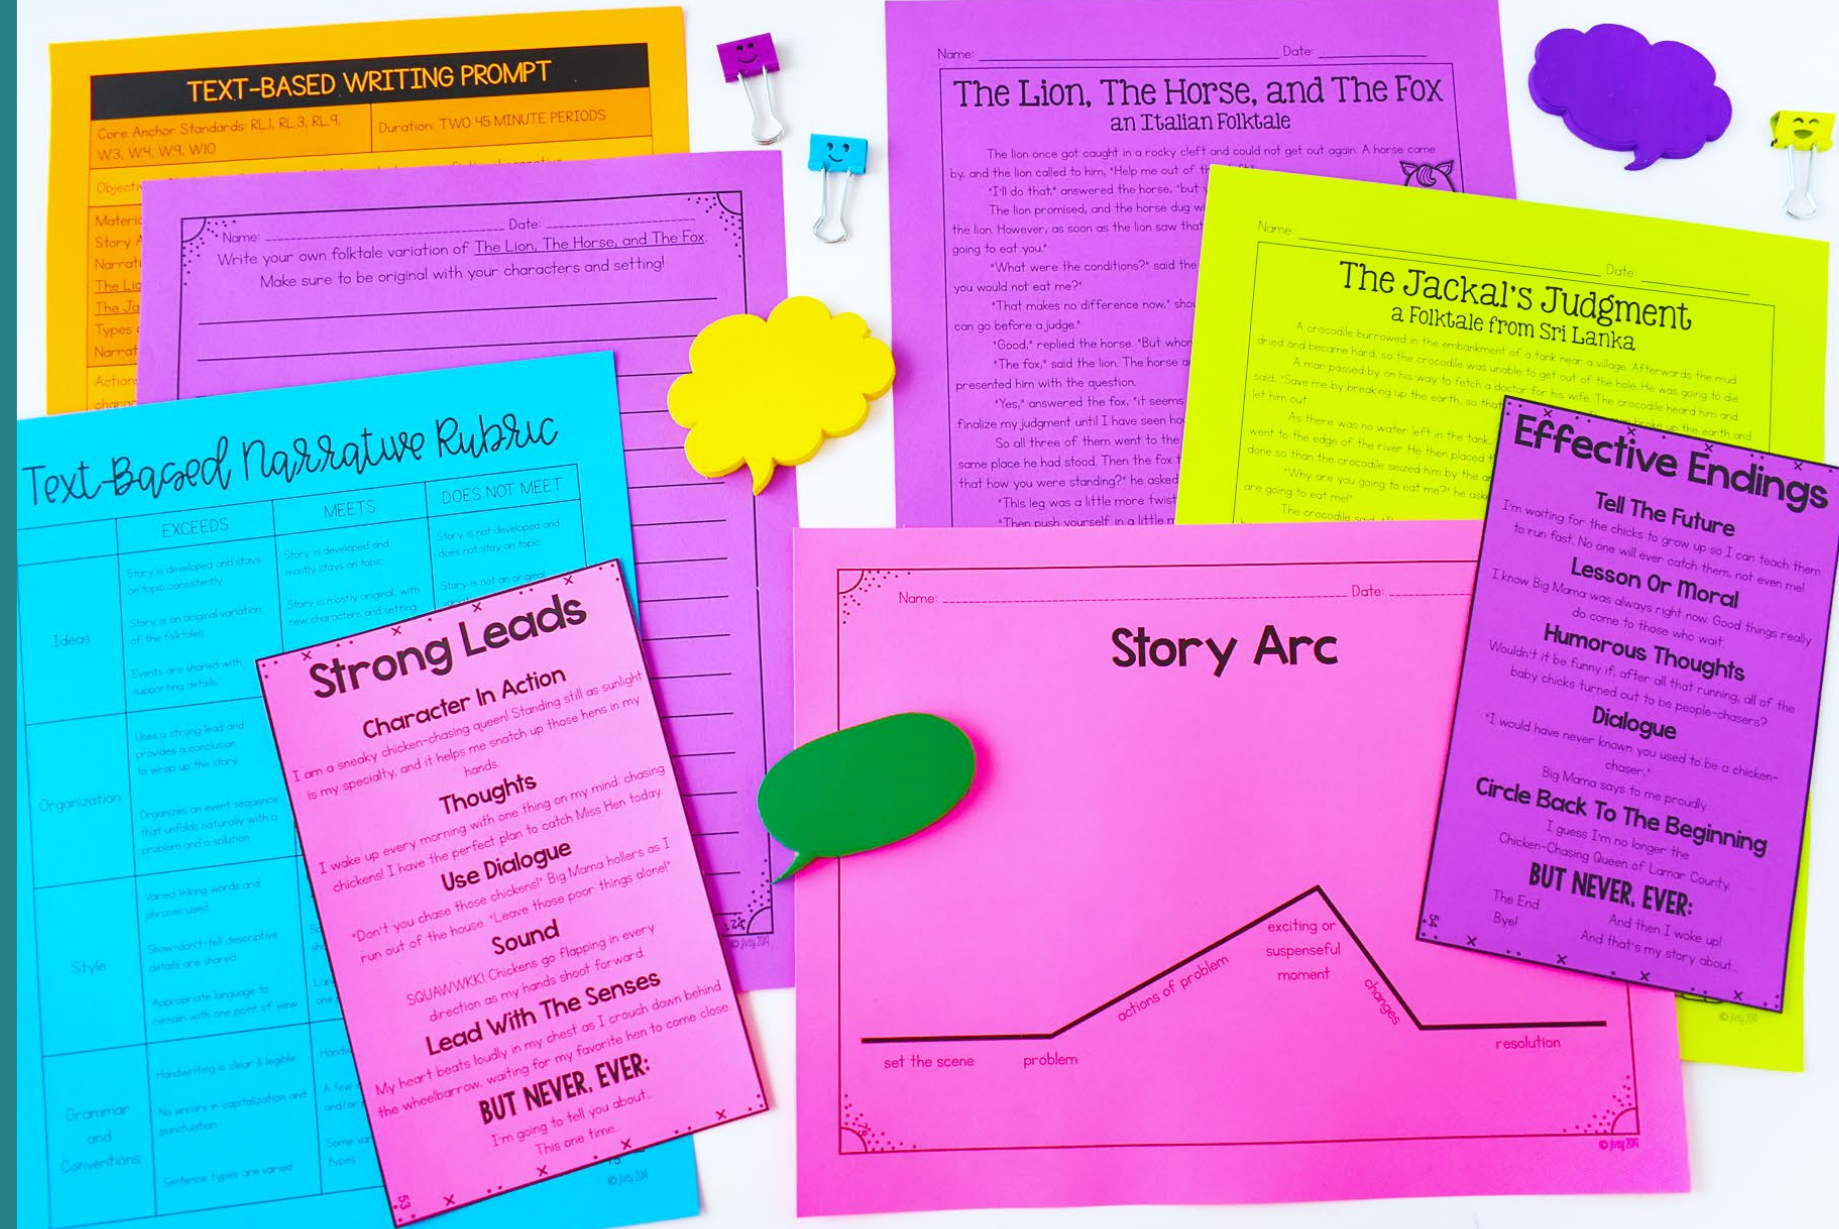

My Remember Balloon
Name: SAMPLE Date: _____
Using the Remember Balloon, draw a memory you can write about in the future.

Very thorough plans! I love how easy this resource made it to integrate reading and writing!

Sara V., 4th Grade Teacher

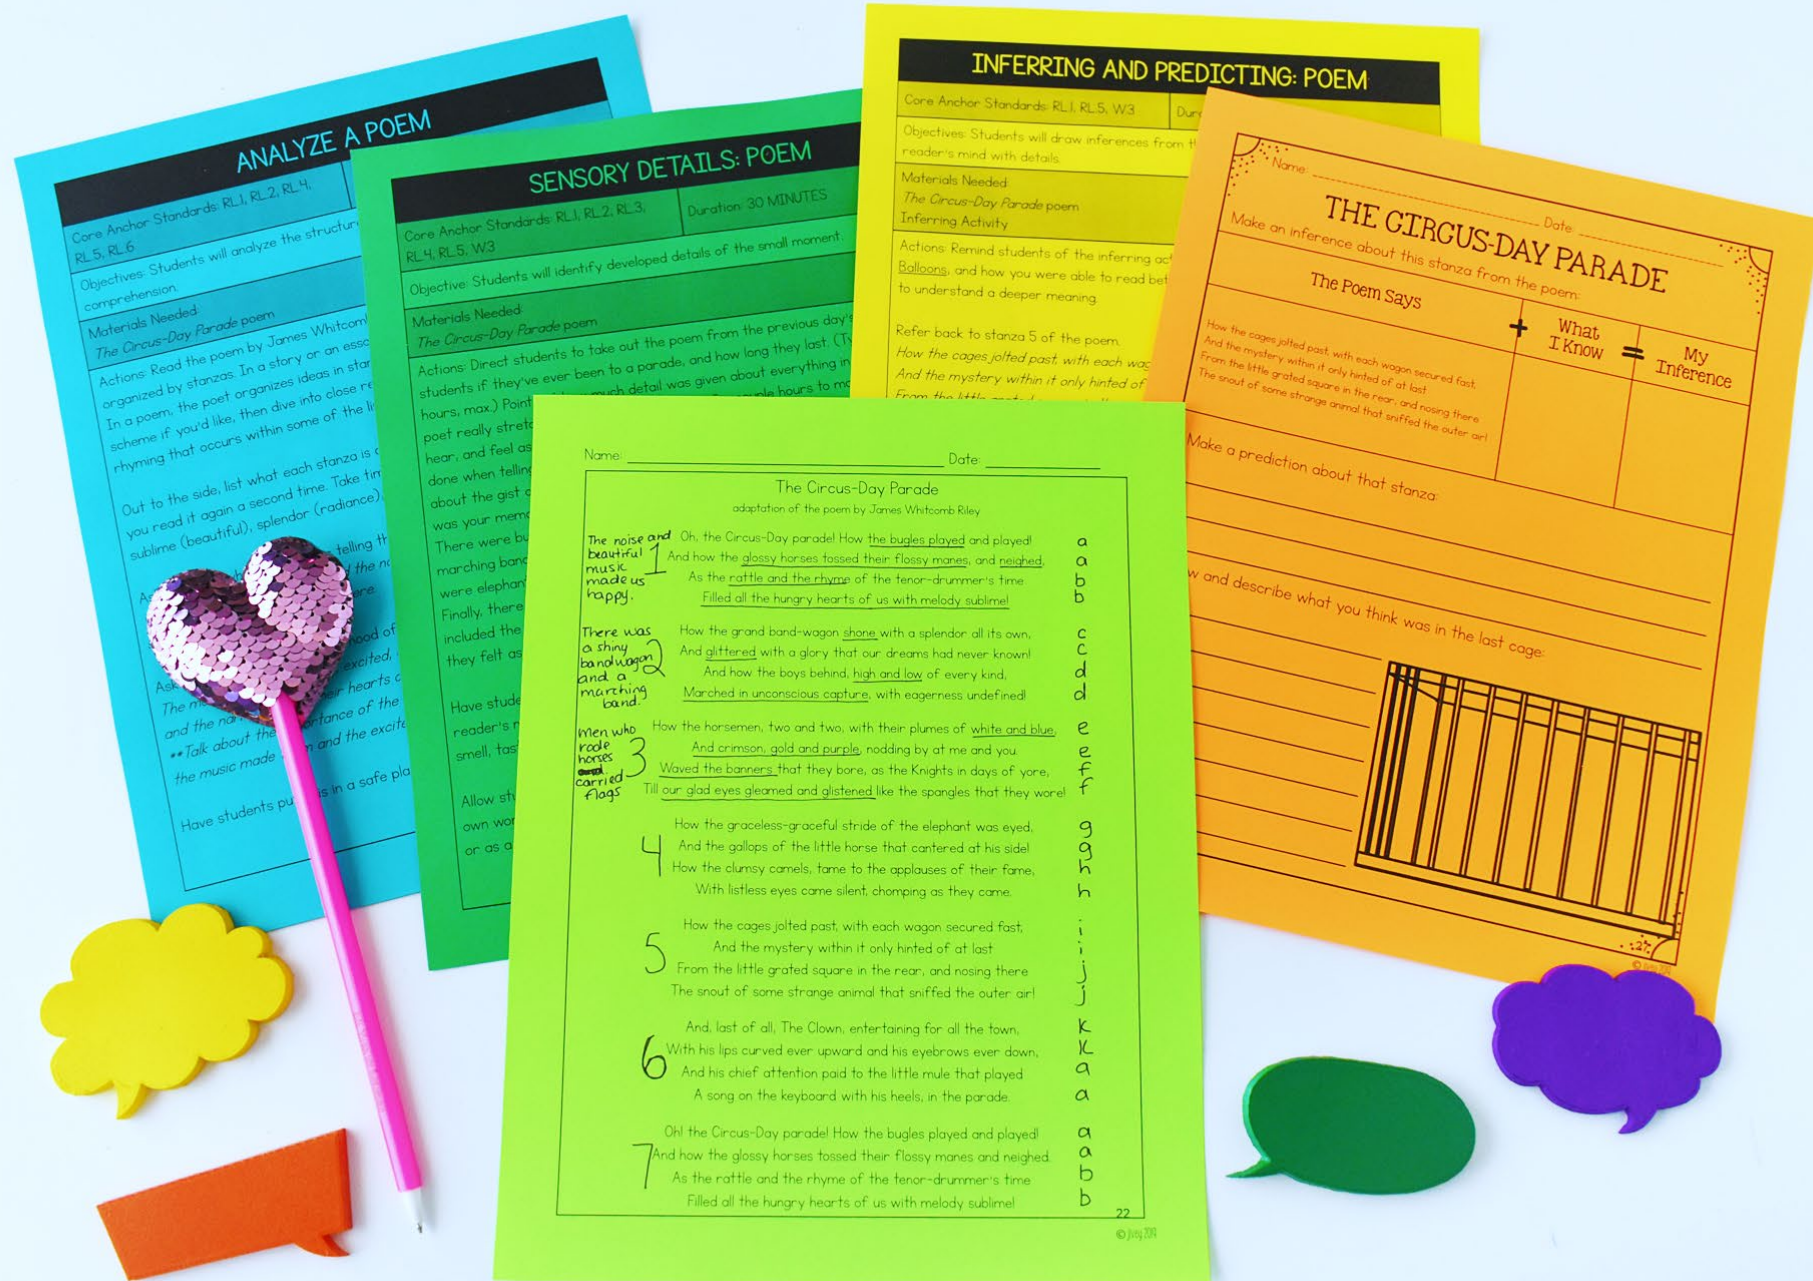

NARRATIVE WRITING LESSONS:

- (TWO) Brainstorm Lessons
- (TWO) Planning Lessons
- Descriptive Details
- Quickwrite Lessons
- Write From A Picture
- Character Creation
- Writing Leads And Endings
- Continue The Story
- Fictional Narrative Creation

PAIRED TEXT AND POETRY LESSONS:

- Folktales Provided For Comparison, Text Dependent Questions, And Text-based Writing Prompt
- Poem Provided With Lessons To Analyze Poetry, Identify Sensory Details, Infer, And Predict

BUY THE BUNDLE & SAVE!

The bundle includes informational, narrative, and opinion writing units integrated with reading, grammar, science, and social studies!

The mentor texts are wonderful. Students are with the activities. They are in-depth and require the students to think. Lots of learning takes place. There are a variety of text forms as well. It's a great resource for a language unit. I have recommended Jivey's resources to other educators.

*check
it out!*

Jennifer R., 4th & 5th Grade Teacher