

Crickwing Complex Sentences

File

Edit

View

Insert

Format

Slide

Arrange

Tools

Add-ons

Help

Last edit was 4 hours ago

+

↶

↷

🖨

🔍

🖱

🔗

🔧

🔍

🖱

🔗

🔧

Background

Layout

Theme

Transition

1

CREATE COMPLEX SENTENCES

Subordinating conjunctions begin a dependent clause and connect it to the main clause of the sentence. When a complex sentence starts with the dependent clause, a comma is needed to separate it from the main clause. When the dependent clause comes after the main clause, no comma is needed. Write another simple sentence on the boxes below that will form a complex sentence.

Crickwing laughed so hard that...

<TYPE SIMPLE SENTENCE HERE>

Because...

<TYPE SIMPLE SENTENCE HERE>

The queen said "There's no way the army ants will attack us if..."

<TYPE SIMPLE SENTENCE HERE>

When...

<TYPE SIMPLE SENTENCE HERE>

The leaf cutter ants plummeted into the trap.

<TYPE SIMPLE SENTENCE HERE>

They were frightened by the huge green ant-eater.

<TYPE SIMPLE SENTENCE HERE>

Pinduli Relative Pronouns

File

Edit

View

Insert

Format

Slide

Arrange

Tools

Add-ons

Help

Last edit was 4 hours ago

+

↶

↷

🖨

🔍

🖱

🔗

🔧

🔍

🖱

🔗

🔧

Background

Layout

Theme

Transition

1

RELATIVE PRONOUNS

Relative pronouns begin a phrase that describes a noun in more detail- these phrases are called relative clauses or adjective clauses. Fill in a relative pronoun that completes each sentence on each sentence strip. Then, click and drag the sentence strips and place under the correct hyena.

WHO

connects to a person

THAT

connects to a thing

WHICH

connects to a thing, follows a comma

You should always be proud of you are!

Pinduli is a hyena becomes ashamed of how she looks.

The zebras had an amused look, made Pinduli sink into the water.

The animals made Pinduli feel bad began to feel bad, too.

Sometimes, a friend is jealous might say something mean.

She rolled in the pale dust, stuck to her wet fur.