

Name: _____

CAUSE OR EFFECT

Show whether each phrase below is a cause or an effect by writing C (cause) or E (effect).
If it is an effect, finish the sentence by adding the word because followed by the cause.
Olive's kitchen smelled sweet because she was baking biscuits.
If the phrase is a cause, finish the sentence by adding the word so followed by the effect.
Olive lay down in a sunny spot so she felt warm.

Olive perked up her ears
Olive heard a thump
Olive wanted to return Dexter's heart
Handler has more nuts than any other squirrel on the hill
Handler didn't feel like counting anymore
The car jerked to a stop
The heart was frozen in mid-air
The note was stuck on Dexter's wing
Dexter and Olive felt happy on the hill

© jivey

Name: _____

OR EFFECT

is only suggested answers.
es can easily be a cause OR an effect.
atches what they choose, I'd give credit.
For example:
d be the cause (see below) or the effect:
because Dexter dropped the heart.

her ears because she heard
ump so she jumped up return Dexter's heart because one nuts than any other squirrel
use his nut runs them to him
eel like counting anymore so he Olive
to a stop so the heart flew off Frozen in mid-air because it was stuck on Dexter's wing so Olive heart was for her e felt happy on the hill because
ach to share with each other

© jivey

Name: _____

PAST TENSE VERBS

The author of Olive, My Love, Vivian Walsh, wrote the story in past tense. Write these verbs from the story in their past tense form in the correct columns.

just add -ed	irregular verb (word changes)

© jivey

Name: _____

PAST TENSE VERBS

The author of Olive, My Love, Vivian Walsh, wrote the story in past tense. Write these verbs from the story in their past tense form in the correct columns.

Id -ed	irregular verb (word changes)
	made
	thought
	sang
	gave caught
	heard
	held
	froze
	began flew
	lost

© jivey

Name: _____

SWEET WORDS

Circle the adjectives in each sentence from the story with pink.
Circle the nouns they describe with red.

- Olive was baking her favorite treats.
- Olive lay down in a sunny spot to take a nap.
- It was her friend Dexter, the winged dog.
- On Olive's doorstep was the biggest heart she had ever seen.
- She filled a sack with fresh biscuits.
- Olive hadn't gone far when she heard these four words.
- No car can make it across the steep ravine.
- Weaver began to wind silk thread around some branches.
- "What a sweet mistake!" said Handler.

© jivey

Name: _____

FEET WORDS

ives in each sentence from the story with pink.
they describe with red.

king her favorite treats.
wn in a sunny spot to take a nap.
riend Dexter, the winged dog
oorstep was the biggest heart she l.
sack with fresh biscuits.
gone far when she heard these
make it across the steep ravine.
an to wind silk thread around
es.
weet mistake! said Handler.

© jivey

Name: _____

SWEET SEQUENCE

First...
Next...
Then...
Finally...

© jivey